LOCAL PRIORITY

Every three months, we listen to your concerns and look at recent crime statistics to shape the things we will concentrate on for the next three months. Our priority for the next quarter is:

Tackling traffic violation – location:
Weston Beggars Bush Lane / Broadgate.

This is due to reports that the no entry sign is being contravened.

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING

Hello everyone

I would like to introduce myself; I am PcsO Fylippa Bennett, and I am new to the Spalding East Rural beat. During my previous 16 years of service, I have covered The Suttons beat.

Also new to the beat is Pc Jon Cummins, he has joined Neighbourhood policing after just over 4 years being a Response Officer at Spalding/Holbeach.

We both look forward to the change.

Pc Cummins has issued 4 tickets for contravening a no entry sign at Beggars Bush Lane/Broadgate, Weston.

The next policing priority will run from October to December 2022. This is your opportunity to have an issue which affects you, addressed by your local team. If you live in Moulton, Moulton Chapel, Moulton Seas End, Weston, Weston Hills, Cowbit, then please get involved. We look forward to hearing from you
