LOCAL PRIORITY

Every three months, we listen to your concerns and look at recent crime statistics to shape the things we will concentrate on for the next three months.

Our priority(s) for the next quarter is:

Anti- Social Behaviour, Moulton Chapel.

This is due to reports of Vehicle Damage and Nuisance Behaviour.

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING

Hello everyone

Our last policing priority was Beggars Bush Lane/Broadgate, Weston contravening a no entry sign. Over the last 3 months PC Cummins has issued 11 tickets and one person reported.

PCSO Bennett attended reports of online fraud in the Cowbit area. Please be vigilant when receiving calls, do not give out any personal/bank details. For further crime advice please check out Action Fraud website www.actionfraud.police.uk

PCSO Bennett attended Coffee and Chat morning at Methodist Church, Moulton Chapel on 15th November. She also attended the Autumn Fair, Weston Hills on 26th November 2022.

She enjoyed meeting with you all.

She visited Weston Primary School to speak to the children as they had "Superhero Week", "Not all hero's wear capes"! The children asked some great questions and got to look in and around the police car.

She has shown lots of presence at Baytree and Fun Farm Car Boot, Weston due to the run up to Christmas to keep people safe and provide any crime prevention.
